CONSTITUTION OF THE

EAST SUDBURY SOCIAL LIBRARY

DATED APRIL 6, 1796.

A Constitution

For a social Library mutually agreed upon by us the Undersigned

Fully convinced that Public as well as priv[ate] happiness essentially depends on the General diffus[ion] of usefull Knowledge; and that the easiest and m[ost] direct way to obtain that Knowledge, is, by the free u[se] of well chosen Books; we the Subscribers do, therefore a[gree] to purchase & keep for our use and benefit, a social circu[lat]ting Library, & do hereby Obligate ourselves to abide by the following Articles as constitutional for this society

1st That each member shall pay one dollar P year for the Space of four years successively, which Sum of four dollars shall entitle the Subscriber to a right in the Library.

2dly That after the expiration of four years, after subscribing each right shall pay annually forever afterwards twenty five cents, at the annual Meeting, or be deprived of the benefit of the Library till paid.

3dly That each member may purchas as many rights as he pliases, at four dollars Bright & have as many Votes in all meetings as he has rights

4th That each member may take out as many Books at one time as he has rights and no more, carefully returning them, according to the Articles following

5th All Books shall be punctualy returned one in three months, Viz. on the first Monday in March, June, September and December, by 3 Oclock P.M. on penalty of paying thirty three cents for each book detained beyond that hour — on refusing to pay that fine, to have the use of his right suspended till paid

6th Each Member shall have Liberty of taking out Books, on the first Monday of Every month, if he pleases, returning one when he takes out another, & the Librarian shall attend for that purpose from the hours of one to nine Oclock P.M.

7th There shall be an annual meeting of the Proprietors on the first monday of September at three Oclock P.M to chuse a Librarian and five Directors at least, who shall manage the Prudential affairs of the Library, receive all monies, fines and forfeitures, and lay out the Same for the use of the Library, & shall purchas and receive Books and other furniture, And the Librarian shall be accountable to the Proprietors for the whole Library, and shall keep an

an account always open to the Inspection of the Proprietors of all Furnitures, Books, Fines &c: received for the use of the Library, how and for what expended - & the Librarian shall be an Inhabitant of the town of East Sudbury, with whom the Library is to be Depositied ——

8th. Each Proprietor shall have Libery to turn such Books into the Library as he pleases to the amount of his right, or rights, the diretors to apprize and receive them, in case they Judge them Suitable — if the diretors refuse them, the major part of the Proprietors present at any meeting, shall determine wether they shall be received or not —

9th. Any Proprietor shall have Liberty of Selling his right or rights, when he pleases, but a Single right shall not be Subdivided; or a Proprietor who does not improve his right may lend or lease it, sending a writen certificate of such loan or lease to the Librarian —

10th. If any Book shall be damaged, the Proprietor in whose posession it was, shall make it good, at the discression of the diretors; in case of refusall, the Benefit of his right shall be suspended untill he does comply —

11th. If any person who shall lend a book to a person who is not a Proprietor, he shall pay a fine equal to the value of the book, if he refuses the use of his right shall be Suspended till he ~~does~~ complys

12th. Any two or more Proprietors wanting at one and the same time a particular book the Proprietor who shall outbid shall have it.

13th If the proprietors have books of the same kind to turn into the Library, he who will turn in his on the best terms shall have it accepted. ——

14th And the Library shall remain to us & to our heirs & assigns forever, being Subject to an annual revision of its articles & regulations, as the major part of the Proprietors present at the meeting shall Judge necessary, and that after twenty persons have Subscribed to this Constitution they may proceed to chuse their officers - at a meeting warned at least two Sundays previous by the committe chosen to draught this Constitution - by posting each Notification at the door of the meting houn - and that all officers shall be chosen by writen votes. ——

in East Sudbury

from the second monday of December, A.D. 1821.

To Jacob Reeves, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace within and for the County of Middlesex.

We, the Subscribers, five of the proprietors of the Social Library, in the town of East Sudbury, judging a Proprietors Meeting to be necessary, do hereby request you to issue a Warrant for the calling of a Meeting of said proprietors, to be holden at Asa Wheelers Inn, in the said Town, on Monday the tenth day of December next at two Clock in the afternoon, to act on the following articles, viz

I. To Choose a Moderator, Clerk, Librarian, Collector & Treasurer, and such other officers as they may judge necessary when met.

II. To adopt measures for the Revision, Amendment, or Adoption of such Constitution, or bye-laws, as shall be agreed on for the due regulation of the concerns of said Library.

III. To raise money, and generally to transact any business for the due regulation of the Library & the concerns thereof, which in the opinion of the Meeting may be necessary and convenient, and to decide on the manner of notifying or calling future meetings. Dated at East Sudbury November 26, 1821.

At a Meeting of the Proprietors of the Social Library on the 1st day of April
A.D. 1833. according to the foregoing notice agreeable to adjournment of the annual Meeting; they made choice of Richard Heard Junior as Moderator.

The Committee appointed at the last Meeting to revise the Constitution reported the following rules & regulations for a Constitution, to wit

The Committee appointed to revise the Constitution of this association have attended to the duty assigned them and recommend the adoption of the following articles & regulations as the Constitution of the East Sudbury Social Library.

1. Terms of admission. Any inhabitant of East Sudbury on payment of the sum of two dollars to the Treasurer, shall become a Proprietor in the Library, and shall be allowed to vote at any meeting of the association either by himself or his representative.

2. Annual Assessment. Each proprietor shall annually pay to the treasurer for the benefit of the library the sum of twenty five cents at the annual meeting, and no book shall be delivered to a proprietor until all assessments & fines due from him are paid.

3. Right of taking books. Each proprietor may take out only one book at a time; but if the work consist of more than one volume, he may take out two volumes.

4. Return of books. All books shall be returned within twelve weeks from the time of taking out the same (excepting those that have not been purchased more than one year; and these shall be returned within six weeks from the time of taking them out) on penalty of twelve and a half cents.

5. Annual return of books. All books shall be returned into the library on or before the first monday in March for the purpose of examination by the directors. Any proprietor who shall violate this rule shall forfeit twenty five cents.

6. Annual Meeting. There shall be an annual meeting for the choice of officers on the second monday of March.

7. Officers. The officers of this Society shall be five directors, a clerk and a librarian.

8. Duty of the Directors. It shall be the duty of the directors to manage the prudential affairs of the library; purchase books and furniture for the same, and sometime during the week preceding the annual meeting, to examine into the state of the library and make report of the same at said meeting. The director first designated shall be also moderator, and in case of his absence the next director present (according to the order of choice) shall be moderator.

9. Duty of the Clerk. It shall be the duty of the clerk to give notice and keep an accurate record of all meetings of this association, and the clerk shall also act as Treasurer & collector, keeping an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures, and collecting assessments.

10. Duty of the Librarian. The Librarian shall have charge of, & be accountable for the whole Library and furniture, shall deliver the books to the proprietors and receive the same, when returned, and shall keep an accurate account of the time of taking & returning the books; He shall also collect all fines and pay them over to the treasurer.

11. Liberty of selling or loaning a right. Any proprietor may sell his right but no right shall be subdivided. Any proprietor who does not improve his right may loan the same provided he sends a written certificate of such loan or lease, to the librarian.

12. Penalty for damage of books. If any book shall be damaged the proprietor in whose possession it was at the time shall make it good according to the judgment of the directors. If he neglect or refuse to do it the benefit of his right shall be suspended until he complies.

13. Penalty for losing or lending books. If any proprietor shall lose a book or lend one to a person who is not a proprietor he shall pay a fine equal to the value of the book or be deprived the use of the library till he complies. Any book which is not returned within a year shall be presumed to be lost.

14. Amendments. This constitution shall be subject to such revision & amendment of its articles & regulations as a major part of all the proprietors shall judge proper at any annual meeting, notice of such proposed alteration being inserted in the notification calling such meeting.

15. Notice of Meetings. Notice of all meetings shall be given by the Clerk, who shall post by the Door of the Meeting house a notification of the same at least two sundays previous to such meeting.

16. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the proprietors may be called at any time by order of a majority of the directors for the time being.

17. All other articles and regulations heretofore made for this association are hereby repealed.
